

Margaret Ruth Hayden

December 5, 1938 - December 24, 2012

MARGARET RUTH ROBINSON HAYDEN was born on December 5, 1937. Margaret was called to her heavenly home in the early morning hours of December 24, 2012. When God said, "That's enough" and He gently closed her eyes after fighting a long illness.

Margaret was one of nine children born of the late Marshall and Elizabeth Morehouse.

She attended the public school of Upstate New York.

Margaret loved doing crossword puzzles, playing cards and going over to her sister's Joan's house for dinner and on holidays. She loved being around her family. To know her was to love her. She will be sincerely missed by her family and friends.

She leaves to mourn: her husband, George Robinson, one daughter, Lee Ann: one grandson; one sister, Joan Queen (Marshall Queen); two brothers, Oscar and Victor Morehouse of Upstate New York; four nieces, Patricia, Cynthia, Wanda and Lisa; four nephews, Robert, James, Dwayne and Kwmane; a great-niece, Diamond, whom she cared for as her own; and a host of great-nephews and friends.

“ I'm sorry for your loss. Death is such a hateful and ugly event that it's called an enemy in the Bible at I Corinthians 15:26. But Jesus gave us a hope in the Bible at John 11:25: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." So, we will be able to see our loved ones again by means of the resurrection. Why can we say that? Because God has promised us this in the Bible at such scriptures as Isaiah 25:8, Isaiah 26:19, and Revelation 21:3-5. Isn't this good news? Please read these scriptures in your own Bible.
