

Margaret Marie Hopkins

June 20, 1942 - October 3, 2019

Margaret Marie Hopkins entered eternal life early Thursday morning on October 3, 2019. She was born June 20, 1942 in Tarboro, NC to the late Nathaniel and Gennian L. Broadie. She was also preceded in death by her cousin Mattie Broadie whom she thought of as a sister.

Margaret was educated in North Carolina Public School. She relocated to Richmond, VA where she joined Fountain Baptist Church which she volunteered until she became ill. She met and fell in love with Calvin Hopkins. They were united in marriage for over 54 years. From that union, they had one son, Gary (Jackie) and three grandsons, Antoine, Derrick (Kyia), and Justin whom she loved very much and one great granddaughter, Journi. Margaret is also survived by her loving brother Milton Broadie, a devoted niece Patricia Wooton; two loving aunts Velma Ruth Bunch of Richmond, VA and Vernastine Exum (Robert) of New York, NY that she talked to on a daily basis; two sisters-in-law, five brothers-in-law and a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends.

Margaret worked at Friends Association after 30 years of service as a daycare teacher. She loved teaching her kids and gave them love and quality time. She took several courses staying current with her teaching certification. She made long lasting friendships with several of the teachers at the center. After retirement, she worked alongside her husband in their carpet cleaning business. Margaret was also a licensed cosmetologists.

Her radiant smile was far more than skin deep and she will be forever cherished for her genuine love and kindness. She will be remembered as a caring and loving wife, mother, grandmother, aunt ,teacher and friend
