

Margaret J. Hall

February 25, 1910 - August 27, 2009

MARGARET J. SNOWDEN HALL, daughter of the late William H. and Mary J. Snowden, was born on February 25, 1910 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on August 27, 2009. Margaret was educated in the Baltimore City Public Schools. She graduated from Douglass High School on June 26, 1929. She received a diploma for completing a Commercial Course from Douglass Evening High School on June 3, 1940. She was a graduate of Cortez Peters Business School. For many years she enjoyed meeting and socializing with the Douglass High School Alumni of the Class of 1929. She was employed with the Bugle Laundry as a Bookkeeper. She is a member of the Enon Baptist Church. She sang on the Women Senior Choir, worked at the Open Door, was a member of the Ivy Leaf Circle and participated in many other organizations. On September 24, 1995, she was honored by Rev. Dr. Arnold W. Howard and the Church Family for Dedicated Leadership and Outstanding Service as coordinator of Enon's Annual NAACP Membership Drive for over fifty years. Although Margaret will be greatly missed by her family and friends, we thank God for the lives she was able to touch. She leaves to cherish loving memories: a sister, Ardonia Snowden; a nephew, James Elliott; a niece, Elizabeth Elliott; great-nephew, Reginald Kirkland; great-niece, Tarshia Elliott; and a host of other relatives and friends.
