

Margaret James

February 14, 1930 - October 11, 2010

MARGART JAMES, daughter of the late Mary Mckenney and John McKenney, was born on February 14, 1930 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on October 11, 2010 after a lengthy illness at the Ellicott City Rehabilitation Center.

She received her education through the Baltimore City Public School System. She attended the Adult Education Center for Upholstery at Carver Vocational Technical High School and the Baltimore City Community College. She was employed by Hochschild Kohn Department Store, Department of the United States Army (Edgewood, Maryland), Value City and Cactus Willie's. She also did a television commercial for Cactus Willie's advertisement.

Aunt Mary James was a traveling companion with mother. They traveled extensively as far north as Canada and as far south as Florida; visiting friends, relatives and sight seeing in the Bahamas. She enjoyed sewing, tailoring, drafting patterns, cooking Sunday and holiday meals and traveling.

She fellowshiped with Lighthouse Ministry of Faith, Helping Hands Ministry and New Psalmist Baptist Church. She was a member of White Stone Baptist Church. She married the late Richard E. James Sr., and out of this union three children were born, Sandra, Gail and Richard.

Margaret made numerous friends wherever she went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew her. She was always a true friend and devoted mother.

She leaves to mourn her: her three children, Gail Dawson, Richard James, Jr. and Sandra Bradley; son-in-law, Clarence Brantley; sister June Marie Williams; three grandchildren, Patrica and Andre' Dawson, Justin Bradley and wife Amber; great-grandson, Nathaniel James Dawson; niece, nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.
