

Margaret Jones

July 19, 1941 - June 13, 2007

Margaret Ruth Jones, daughter of the late Roosevelt Alston and Mollie Epps, was born on April 9, 1941 in Halifax County, North Carolina. She received her education Halifax County Public Schools. At an early age, she gave her life to Christ and was baptized. Later, in 1960, she moved to Baltimore Maryland where she was employed as a Domestic Worker for many years. She met and became the companion of Mr. Rico Renteria of over 30 years. On Wednesday morning, June 13, 2007, after a lengthy illness, God summoned Margaret home to her eternal rest. Margaret made numerous friends; always willing to help her family and people in the neighborhood. She would lend a helping hand to anyone in need, giving freely of whatever she possessed. Margaret was a true friend and a family woman. Everyone who knew her will sincerely miss her. She leaves to cherish her memories: her companion, Rico Renteria; two sons, Alfred Epps of Halifax, N.C. and Tony (Debra) Epps of Lenoir, N.C.; Henry, Yvonne and Jasmine Kennedy of Baltimore, Md. and Troy (Kalilah) Gee of Baltimore, Md. and the Harrison Family; Anthony Richardson; five brothers, Arthur (Louise) Epps of Garyburg N.C., Roosevelt (Patricia) Alston of Colonial Heights, Va., Charles (Eva) Epps of Atlanta, Ga.; Cleveland Epps of Weldon, N.C., and Clarence (Virginia) Epps of Utica, N.Y.; seven grandchildren, and two great grandchildren; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends; and a devoted friend, Denise Dorsey.
