

Margaret Price Jones

August 22, 1928 - April 15, 2019

A Time to be Born: Margaret Estelle Price was born (midwife-assisted) on August 22, 1928 to George Price and Lillian Augusta (Brown) Price at their residence 1444 N. Parrish St., Baltimore, Md.

A Time to Learn: Margaret attended school here at Saint Peter Claver School and went on to Saint Francis Academy High School.

A Time to Marry: She later met and married Willie (Wesley) Jones on August 23, 1957, who preceded her in death in 1994.

A Time to Embrace: Margaret loved to hug and care for children. Sometimes she took to co-parenting or treating others as her own biological children, affectionately earning the name “Aunt Mommy” and “Mommy”. You never left her company without her asking, “How are the ‘Chaps’ doing?”

A Time to Work: The highlight of Margaret’s career was the love and impact she had on serving ‘At-Risk’ youth in the capacity of HOUSE MOTHER. She happily served in this capacity for 28 years at the Woodbourne Center in Baltimore, Maryland. The Woodbourne Center bestowed several plaques Margaret in appreciation for her exceptional service.

A Time to Serve: Margaret loved the Lord (like her parents). Like her mother, she regularly attended and enjoyed service at St. Peter Claver. After health challenges, she continued sending her tithes.

A Time to be Remembered: At age 90, God called Margaret home. Margaret leaves surviving relatives to remember her life: Son, Allen James Little; daughter, Margaret Patrice Little (Diane Jackson); four grandchildren: Toshia

“ My deepest sympathy to the family of Margaret Price Jones. I'm sure she shared life lessons and stories to remember a lifetime. But there are no words that can describe the lost of your loved one. I hoped you can find comfort as I have in the words found at Isaiah 41:10 "Do not be afraid, for I am with you. Do not be anxious, for I am your God. I will fortify you, yes I will help you. I will really hold on to you with my right hand of righteousness.
