August 6, 1915 - April 2, 2008

Margaret Louise Chase, daughter of the late Benjamin and Geneva Taylor, was born on August 6, 1915, in Greensboro, North Carolina. She departed this life unexpectedly on April 2, 2008. Margaret gave her life to Christ at an early age. She was a member of Wayland Baptist Church and later joined City Temple of Baltimore. Margaret was educated in Baltimore City and graduated from Douglass High School. After graduating, she attended the Cortez Peters Secretarial School, which led to a position in the Federal Government. She worked for the Department of the Army at Fort Holabird until her retirement in 1970. Margaret married the late Randolph Chase in 1937. From their union two daughters, Barbara Chase Cruise and Janice Chase Page, were born. She was devoted to her family and was very proud of the fact that both her daughters became educators. She had a wonderful sense of humor and shared it with everyone she met. Margaret leaves to cherish her memory; two daughters, one brother, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, great great children, nieces, nephews and a host of loving relatives and friends.

“ I would like to extend my heartfelt condolences to the family at this time. May you find comfort in the wonderful times you shared together over the years, and may the God of all comfort envelope you with his love and caring. Whenever you are feeling down and out the bible at 1st peter 5,7 says to throw your anxiety upon God, because he cares for you." Remember that he is always there for us, and we can go to him in prayer at any time. One day soon there will be no more sickness and death, because Isaiah 25:8 promises that the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will swallow up death forever, and will certainly wipe the tears from all faces." One day the dead will come back to life in the ressurection which will soon take place. All authority has been given to Jehovah's son Jesus to ressurect the dead, and to bring about an end to sin and death for all obedient people. John 5:28,29 tells us: "Donot marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out;those who did good things to a ressurection of life.' May these wonderful promises bring peace to your hearts, and help you to cope with your loss.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."###imported-begin##Gwen Winston###imported-end##
