

Margaret H. Lindsay

February 13, 1925 - December 3, 2018

Margaret was born February 13, 1925, the second daughter of the late Arthur and Rosa Harris. Margaret began her elementary education in Cumberland County, Virginia and completing her high school education in Boston, Massachusetts. Margaret left this earth on Tuesday, December 3, 2018 at 8:42 p.m.

Margaret met and married the late John A. Lindsay in 1944 and from that union, was born their only child, Pamela Sheree Lindsay-Jordan.

Margaret accepted Christ at an early age and was a devoted member of First Baptist Church since the 1950's and was honored as a First Baptist Diamond Woman in April of 2016.

Margaret lived her life as consummate guide for all she came into to contact with. She taught us all how to be thankful, appreciative, humble and to love one another. Most of all, she taught us to give Praise to our Lord.

Margaret leaves to cherish her memories: her daughter, Pamela S. Jordan; her grandson, Montez Jordan, Jr.; four grandchildren; one brother, Jesse Harris and sister-in-law, Geraldine Harris; one sister, Lilly Porter; and many devoted nieces, nephews, cousins and a host of other family members.

“ I remember the first day I met Ms. Lindsay at Trinity House in Towson. I had seen her there before and thought she was a Resident. Well, who knew the Lord was going to allow me to serve as Supervisor at this nearly new. Senior Apartment Building.

Back to Ms Margaret

Ms. Margaret: What did you come here to do?

I'm glad to see you here you are the first Black permanent Supervisor we got here.

Me: Really

Ms Margaret: Yep! so, what are you going to do?

Me: I am here to serve.

Ms. Margaret: Oh ok! We need these people to know we are not their maids or girls. I don't mind the work but I don't like that disrespect.

Me: No problem, I will work on that you are absolutely right.

Ms Margaret: Yeah, because I'm older then they are and I put my pants on the same way they do. Ok,... Caseclosed!!!

We laughed and she went back to work with a smile!

As a result of this conversation, the Residents were educated and was told to call our staff Resident Associates. All Congregate Housing Supervisor's and Building Manager's were to correct anyone who addressed the staff inappropriately.

Thanks Ms Lindsay !!!

“ *To the Family,
At a time like this, reflection on the promises of Almighty God is very comforting. Like the promise at Isaiah 25:8 to swallow up death forever. May these thoughts encourage you during your time of bereavement. Our condolences to you and your family.*
