

Margaret Louise Jefferson

March 17, 1942 - February 6, 2010

MARGARET LOUISE JEFFERSON, devoted daughter, mother, grandmother and friend, was born in Chattanooga, Tennessee on March 17, 1942 to the late Beatrice Royster and Mr. Howard. God called her home to rest on February 6, 2010. She received her education through Baltimore City Public Schools. Margaret was employed at The Genesis Homewood Nursing Center for over twenty years. Later in life, she met and married the late Thomas Jefferson, Sr. and from this union they raised three sons; Anthony Howard, Ralph Howard and Thomas Jefferson, Jr. Margaret was a member of the Mt. Carmel Baptist Church under the leadership of Pastor Dr. Leroy Gilliard, Jr. She was a very pleasant and outgoing person who always greeted you with a warm smile. She will be missed by all who knew her. She leaves to mourn: three sons, Anthony, Ralph and Thomas; stepfather, R. C. Royster; nine grandchildren, Tiffany, Ralph Jr., Derrick, Darrel, Taray, Breeze, Shannon, Scottie and Renee; five great-grandchildren, Maiya, Maddox, Kennadi, Makayla and Keyon; devoted friend, Brenda Jenkins; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I send my deepest sympathy to the family of Margaret. Losing a loved one is so hard to come to terms with. We feel so powerless when we lose a loved one, and it is something no family should have to go through. This is not Jehovah's purpose for us; this pain and sorrow, because he crated the first man to live forever in a paradise earth. Sadly, he lost eternal life for himself and his offspring; inculding us, but Jehovah took steps to undo what Adam brought upon us by sending his most beloved Son, Jesus to pay that ransom price for all of us who would exercize faith in that ransom. He took those steps to make everlasting possible for all of us. 1st Corinthians 15:22 tells us: "For just as in Adam all are dying, so also in the Christ, all will be made alive." "For God loved the world so much that he gave his only-begotten son, in order that everyone exercising faith in him might not be destroyed, but have everlasting life." One day that promise will be fulfilled, and all those sleeping in death will awaken. Daniel 12:2. May your precious memories of your loved one bring happy thoughts to your hearts, and may the hope of being reunited with her again one day help you to go on enduring.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ I would like to convey my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Sickness and death was never part of Jehovah God's original purpose because time indefinite was put into our hearts (Eccl.3:11). John5:28-29 and Acts24:15 assures us that all those who have fallen asleep in death will live again by means of a resurrection on a paradise earth (Psalm37:11,29). Continue to draw close to God in prayer and he will sustain your during this difficult time (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ I would like to extend my deepest sympathy to the family and friends of Margaret Louise Jefferson. Losing a loved one in death is a painful time. This is a pain that Jehovah God promises will one day no longer exist (Revelation 21:3,4). May you take comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father promises us that soon all those in the memorial tombs will come out to life on a paradise earth by means of a resurrection (John 5:28,29 and Psalms 37:29). As you await the fulfillment of this promise , may you find comfort from "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).##imported-begin##S.
