“ To the Family of Ms. Fields, My condolences on the passing of your loved one. Please find comfort in Isaiah 26:19 which states, “Your dead ones will live. A corpse of mine—they will rise up. Awake and cry out joyfully, YOU residents in the dust! For your dew is as the dew of mallows, and the earth itself will let even those impotent in death drop [in birth]”. What a wonderful hope the Bible holds out, we CAN and WILL see our loved ones again. Please keep this scripture in mind especially when you find yourself missing your loved one.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ To the family of Ms. Fields I wish to express my deepest sympathy. No doubt death is hard to cope with. The bible gives us a comforting hope. And the hope of the resurrection is made clear to us all at John 5:28,29 “Do not marvel at this because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial will hear his voice and come out”.... One day soon by means of Kingdom this will be a reality.##imported-begin##K.D. Smith##imported-end##

“ I would like to send my condolences at a time of much heartache and grief. I pray that the comfort of God will bring the healing to all those affected over this lost. How blessed we all are to know despite the painful effects of death our God Jehovah have promised a relief from our enemy death. Rev. 21:3-4 states death will no longer exist and will no longer cause mourning nor our cry or pain anymore. He say's death will be swallowed up according to Is. 25:8-9. However Jehovah's greatest promise he say's, the dead will live again according to Is. 26:19. That is truly a wonderful hope. Our very loved ones lost to death will live again. Yes their state is temporary like a sleep.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
