

Margaret M. Banks

March 14, 1930 - May 1, 2004

Let me do all the good I can, for all the people I can, as long as I can. For I shall not pass this way again. This was typical of Margaret. For she touched the lives of many as she passed this way. Margaret Mae Banks was born on March 14, 1930 in Keysville, Virginia. She was the daughter of the late Claudius and Bessie Fowlkes. Her mother died at childbirth and her paternal grandmother, Mrs. Mary B. Fowlkes, whom she lovingly called "Mama," raised her. In September of 1930 the family moved to Maryland and settled in Turners Station. She was educated in Turners Station Elementary School and Bragg High School in Sparrows Point, Maryland. Margaret chose beauty culture as her profession and for years she worked as a beautician in various beauty salons. On August 29, 1957, she married Albert Banks. Margaret exhibited a quality that was indescribable. Her friendly attitude earned her love and admiration from all that knew her. She was always willing to give a helping hand whenever needed. Her family was the main focus of her life. She was a member of First Charity Baptist Church of East Baltimore. On Saturday morning, May 1, 2004, God in His infinite wisdom and power, opened His arms and received Margaret to her everlasting home. She will be sorely missed but we have this blessed hope that on "God's tomorrow" we shall meet again in the "Earth Made New." Death for one who has died in the Lord is "Perfection." She leaves to mourn: two daughters, Marnita Price and Stephanie Brinkley; grandchildren, Raynetta Brinkley, Charles Price Jr., Charnita Price, LaTia Brinkley; seven great-grandchildren; two aunts, Bertha Hillmon and Mary Brown; one godson, James Jones; six very devoted friends, Sylvia Hall, Sonia Daniels, Mr. Elisha Halloman, Mrs. Pauline Wimple, Maria Gore and Gregory Brock; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“Death is a harsh and devastating interruption to life a precious gift of God. Yet in most of our lives today we see death as our final eventuality accepted by many. However our heavenly father Jehovah God, the giver of life promises that one day in our near future death will be no more. As Revelations 21:3-4 states “God will wipe every tear from our eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor out cry nor pain be anymore.” How truly happy we all will be not to ever be threaten by death because it is Jehovah God’s promise to us according to Psalms 37:29 for the righteous ones to live forever on earth. Another hopeful awaiting thought in our future is all those who have lost their lives to death or the lost of our love ones, Jehovah God says according to John 5:28,29 all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus voice and come out. Yes these ones will live again! We all can hold fast to this because Titus 1:2 states: upon the basis of hope of everlasting life, which God, who cannot lie promised before times long lasting. Such a comforting thought to know our having life forever was always Jehovah God’s promised purpose for us. My deepest sympathy to the family.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“Hello, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. May you be comforted by this scripture as I have been many times.##imported-begin##sophia briscoe##imported-end##

“ To the Banks Family, I would like to express my condolence to the family and friends at this time of distress. When the enemy death strikes, grief can be great. The Lord Jesus promise at John 5: 28, 29, "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". So one day soon, we can look forward to that occurring. I hope this has been a source of comfort.##imported-begin##Raven Harris##imported-end##

“ My family and I would like to express our deepest sympathy on the loss of your loved one. Almighty God always has words of comfort during dufficult times, such as the words found at 1 Peter 5:6,7. God encourages you by saying, "Humble yourselves, therefore, under the mighty hand of God...because he cares for you." May you and your family draw comfort and strength from this scripture.##imported-begin##Sandy Sloane##imported-end##

“ To the Family: Please accept my condolences. Mere words cannot express the sorrow you are going through. However, may you find comfort from the Holy Scriptures which says at John 5:28,29 "The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out..." May you continue to find comfort from the holy scriptures and your family/friends.##imported-begin##Vanessa Adams##imported-end##
