

Margaret V. Manning

December 18, 1949 - July 8, 2018

On July 8, 2018, Mrs. Margaret V. Davis Manning departed this earthly life at the University of Maryland Saint Joseph's Medical Center after a lengthy illness. Margaret was born in Chester County, South Carolina on December 18, 1949 to the late James Davis and Rosalee Alexander Davis.

Margaret accepted Christ at an early age and became a member of Christian Home Baptist Church where she was an active and dedicated member until relocating to New York in 1969, where she met and married Alfonzo Fernandez. She was the proud mother of two daughters, Jacqueline and Deitrich. While there, she united with the Greater Allen A.M.E. Zion Cathedral of New York in Jamaica Queens New York in 1969 where she held various and sundry positions including Stewardess Board, taught Vacation Bible School, and worked in the church office. She was educated in the public schools of South Carolina. She earned her Bachelor of Arts Degree in Special Education at St. Francis in Brooklyn, New York and her Master's Degree from Mercy College in Bronx, New York. Margaret was encouraged by Dr. Flake and his wife to complete her degree in Special Education.

Margaret's career spanned many years of working for the New York Police Department in administration. She taught in the New York public schools for over twenty years. She also taught in Penn, NC and most recently in the Baltimore City School. She always encouraged her students to achieve their goals. She enjoyed social gatherings with family and friends. Margaret loved to dress "sharp" and held high standards. Margaret still found time to enjoy her hobbies, reading and singing.

Margaret was preceded in death by her parents, James Davis and Rosalee Alexander Davis; three sisters, Janie McClurkin, Gwen Simpson, and Susie Davis; two brothers, James Luther Davis and Gene Autry Davis.

Margaret leaves her legacy of love and caring to her family, two loving children, Jacqueline Davis Scott and Deitrich Fernandez; a devoted companion Ronald Faranda four sisters, Betty Peay, Evangelist Patricia Freeman, Mary Collins and Gertrude Caldwell; five grandchildren, Daenisha Fernandez, Dwight Alexander Bell, Dayson Fernandez, Jayla Scott and Brandon Andrew Scott; two great grandchildren, Malani Fernandez and Daison FERNANDEZ; aunts, Bessie Lowry and Valerie Holly; two brothers-in-law, Sammy McClurkin and Rev. Jessie Peay; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other loving family members, and caring friends.
