

Margaret Marie Lewis

July 11, 1923 - July 16, 2002

Margaret Marie Russell Lewis, daughter of the late Herman Henry Harris and Addie Russell, was born on July 11, 1923 in Richmond, Virginia. She departed this life on July 16, 2002 after a lengthy illness. She received her education in Hanover County public schools. Upon completion of her education she became a full time Registered Nurse. She was baptized at a Holiness Church. She married Richard D. Lewis who is deceased. She leaves to mourn: six daughters, Loretta James Lewis, Elizabeth Chandler, Jean Ingram, Jackie Jones, Margaret Gale, Vernelle Ferrell, (three daughters preceded her in death, Olivia Lee Lewis Brown, Blanche Robinson and Thelma Harris); two brothers, Willie James Lewis and Herman Harris Jr. (she had four brothers and one recently deceased, Lawrence Russell, who was married to Betty Russell); a host of nieces, nephews and a host of many relatives and friends. May God Bless two very special people in our family and friends who have been very close and were there for the family-cousin Gracie Eley and Mrs. Allie Cooper of Robb Street who has been there for my mother and her family, and who was very supportive and comforting to me and my family. May God Bless Each and Every One
