

Margaret P. Carr

May 4, 1920 - December 29, 2001

MARGARET P. CARR, daughter of the late John and Mary Matthews was born on May 4, 1920 in Baltimore, Maryland. She went home to be with God on December 29, 2001 after a lengthy illness. She received her education at St. Catherines Academy and St. Peter Clavers Catholic School. Margaret loved children and ran her own Day Care Program from her home. She was also employed by the Baltimore School System as a Teacher's Aide. She was raised in a Christened home and was a faithful member of St. Peter Clavers Catholic Church and remained a member up to the time of her death.

Margaret married the late James Carr and out of that union one child was born, Anthony. She made numerous friends wherever she went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew and loved her. She was a true friend, devoted wife and mother. Margaret leaves to cherish her memory a devoted son, Anthony, a devoted sister Cecelia Griffin, two grandchildren, Verseana and Anthony, Jr., a longtime friend James Palmer, and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends. "Let not your heart be troubled, ye believe in God, believe in Me. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you and if I go and prepare you, I will come again and receive unto Myself that where I am, there ye will be also" John 14:
