“ To the family. I would to extend my deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. At a time filled with so much sorrow I hope that you are able to find comfort and hope in the promises recorded in the scriptures, which were written so that through our endurance we may be comforted and have hope. (Romans 15:4) A very heartwarming scripture is found at Isaiah the 25th chapter, verses 8 and 9. It states: “He (Jehovah God) will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. . . . And in that day one will certainly say: ‘Look! This is our God. We have hoped in him, and he will save us. This is Jehovah. We have hoped in him. Let us be joyful and rejoice in the salvation by him.’” What a time to look forward to! May God’s word the Bible ease your pain as we await the fulfillment of these wonderful promises.##imported-begin##Sausha S.##imported-end##

“ During your time of bereavement may the God of all comfort be with you. Please keep in mind that there is going to be a resurrection of the dead back to life. This is Jehovah's promise, because John 5:28,29 lets us know that one day all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus's voice and come out; those who did good things to a resurrection of life." Your loved one is in the best hands possible; she is in his memory, and he never forgets our loved ones. May you be comforted by the hope of the resurrection, which Jesus gave his precious life for.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
