

Margaret Thompson Robinson

November 6, 1925 - June 2, 2013

I will lift mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help, my help cometh from the Lord, which made heaven and earth.

Psalm 121:1-2

On Sunday, June 2, 2013 at 3:08 am, the Lord called Mrs. Margaret Virginia Thompson Robinson home. Margaret was born November 6, 1925 in New Kent County to the late Littleton and Maude Thompson. She is preceded in death by her first born son, Walter Seldon Jr. and sister, Catherine Macon.

She became a member of Lebanon Baptist Church at an early age. She was educated in the New Kent County Public Schools and moved to Richmond as a young adult where she was first employed with a private family.

Margaret was united in holy matrimony to Walter Seldon Robinson Sr. on December 24, 1954. That union was blessed with three children: Walter Jr., Garry and Erle.

Margaret worked at the Little Sisters of the Poor for over 20 years. Through the years, her husband and sons would also work for her employer. At one point, Margaret was featured as employee of the month and her entire family was cited as an example of excellence. She retired from the Little Sisters in 1989 to care for her grandchildren.

Margaret was a devoted and loving wife, mother and grandmother. She loved her husband and family unconditionally and embraced others as part of her family. Visitors to her home could always find fresh bacon cooked on the stove and a cold soda in the downstairs fridge. She was a guardian angel and security blanket for her three sons and doted upon her grandchildren.

Margaret never missed a recital, school event or special outing. She enjoyed talking on the telephone and going out with her sons. She was a dependable, steadying force to her family and friends.

"Without farewell, you fell asleep...with only memories for us to keep
A pleasant smile, a heart of gold...our love for you will never grow old.

“ To the family of Mrs. Robinson:

I wanted to send my deepest condolences to the family of Mrs. Robinson. May the great memories of her help to ease your pain of sorrow.

Please remember that she is not suffering but is asleep in death waiting on the fulfillment of John 5:28 & 29, which states, " Do not marvel at this because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear his voice & come out."

We can see her again, right here on a Paradise earth, (Psalms 37:9,10,11 & 29).

I will keep your family in my thoughts & prayers.

Love,

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
