“ Mr. & Mrs. W. Williams III lit a candle in memory of Margaret Ann Shelton

Mr. & Mrs. W. Williams III - June 06, 2015 at 05:59 AM

The beautiful memories of our dear mother, Margaret, are like an eternal flame that burns continually in our hearts. Be comforted by the warm, loving memories God provided through her love, faith, strength, humor and smile. She is still among the living; for she stands in the presence of our risen Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ! She ran her faith race well and did not allow anything to hinder it. May we all run as well so that we may be reunited with Margaret and the other saints in God's keeping. "Blessed are [those] ... in the Lord. [Rev. 14:13]" -- Lovingly, Her adopted children, Mr. & Mrs. William Williams of Waldorf, MD

“ Rodney (my brother from a another mother) I was sadden when Randy shared the news of your moms passing. Having never personally met her, I knew her through the many conversations shared in the kitchen or out on the deck about her. I know you loved her & will miss her greatly. Therefore hold on to the many beautiful thoughts & memories and she will always be near. Offering prayers of comfort at this time you & the family.

“ I was so sorry to hearing of the news regarding Mrs. Shelton. While I never met her, her daughter Thelma often spoke so well of her mom to me. She was truly loved. As I now see her warm smile--much like Thelma's :) I see where Thelma got her warm, loving spirit, and twinkling eyes that welcome everyone. However, while this is a very sad time, I look forward to the Bible's promise of our departed loved ones returning back to us, in perfect health, on paradise earth--where pain, sickness, and death will be . . . no more. (Isa. 33:24) (Rev. 21:4). This is an exciting hope, because it also helps us to see that death, is not . . . a part of life. In the meantime, I pray on behalf of the family, and my good friend Thelma. Mrs. Shelton left a family dynasty that touches so many lives, and I look forward to meeting her. M. Hawk
