“ I send my sincere and heartfelt condolences to the family. When we lose a loved one in death, we can't help but ask; why did this have to happen to my family. Sometimes it's like an unreality knowing that our loved one is not here any longer to share life with us. This sorrow was definitely not God's purpose for us, because he is a lover of life, and he hates death. Viewing it as our enemy, he promises at 1st Cor 15:26, "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." Adam, by his disobedience brought death upon us all; and Jesus, by his obedience will undo what Adam did, and give us everlasting life. 1st Cor 15:22 says, "For just as in Adam all are dying, so also in the Christ all will be made alive." Many will be ressurected back to life, because Acts 24:15 says; "And I have hope towards God that there is going to be a ressurection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." May you find much comfort in the promises of Jehovah God, and may his love surround you.###imported-begin###R Johnson###imported-end###
