

Margaret R. Sutton

January 11, 1948 - July 3, 2016

Margaret Rosalee Sutton entered eternal rest on July 3, 2016. She was born on January 11, 1948 to the late William Arnold Brown Sr. and Mary Antoinette Cecelia Brown.

Margaret met and fell in love with Harold Sutton and on November 6, 1964 they were wed. From this union came four children, Michelle, Antoinette, Harold and Priscilla.

Margaret was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System and later attended Coppin State College.

She had a great love for young people and was employed with the Baltimore City Public School System where she worked until she retired. She also worked with the Department of Recreation and Parks where she served as Assistant Director of summer camps and neighborhood programs.

As loving nurturing and caring as Margaret was, she was equally as smart and ambitious. She often worked two jobs while attending college and raising four children. She had a quiet spirit but was steadfast to the things she believed in. It was very hard to change her mind in those instances. Margaret loved singing and dancing; especially with her siblings and kids. Margaret also loved to cook big meals and opening her home to family and friends. She will be remembered for her beautiful smile, how she loved her family and the loving care she extended to all.

Margaret was preceded in death by her father, William Arnold Brown Sr., her mother, Mary Antoinette Cecelia Brown and her brother, William Arnold Brown Jr.

She leaves to cherish her memory; her husband, Harold Sutton Sr.; three daughter, Michelle, Antoinette and Priscilla Sutton; one son, Harold Sutton; five grandchildren. Crystal Brown, Chelli Wright, Christopher Berrain Kristen Artis, and Kevin Sutton; two great-grandchildren, Kyle L. Tuck and Kyle L Tuck Jr.; three sister, Shirley Stowers, Carolyn Cooks and Janie Winkler; one brother, Paul Brown; three sister-in-law, Margaret Roberts, Elizabeth Brunner and Dorothy Sutton; one brother-in-law, Jimmy Stowers; and a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends.
