

Margaret T. Carter

August 17, 1925 - April 21, 2003

Margaret T. Carter, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Taylor Sr., was born on August 17, 1925 in Reisterstown, MD. She departed this life on April 21, 2003, after a lengthy illness. She grew up in Reisterstown, MD and attended Baltimore County Public Schools graduating from Banneker High School in Catonsville, MD. She then continued her education at Morgan State College. Margaret married Reuben D. Carter at Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Glyndon, MD. on February 25, 1950. Margaret had eight children, three of whom preceded her in death. In September 1959 she was employed at Rosewood State Hospital as a nurse's aide. She later enrolled in the school of nursing and graduated in September 1960 as a Licensed Practical Nurse. Margaret retired from Rosewood State Hospital in August 1987. Margaret was a faithful member of St. Ann's Church for over 40 years. She was a member of the Sodality, Young at Hearts, and volunteered her faithful services to many organizations at the church. She loved everyone she came in contact with because she loved the Lord. She leaves to cherish her memory: her husband, Reuben D. Carter, four daughters, Linda Carter, Sandra Byrd, Carol Chaney, Cynthia Carter; one son, Reuben D. Carter Jr., two sisters, Dorothy Brown, Sarah Taylor; twelve grandchildren, ten great grandchildren, one great-great grandchild, two sisters-in-law, one brother-in-law, two daughters-in-law, three sons-in-law, and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends. THE WONDER OF A MOTHER There was something unique about her natural ability to nurture and to love. When our family needed comfort and guidance,

She was the multi-facet mother who provided affection, compassion, and the Word of God. You taught us how to love by the way that you loved us. Your life will not conclude with death, because your legacy will reflect within all of us. As she lay peacefully, and the last teardrop fell from her eye, we knew she had entered the heavenly gates and found her everlasting resting-place. Looking down from a far, at peace answering her Heavenly Father's final call. Lovingly, The Children

“ I'm sorry about your loss. God will be watching over you and your family as God always is. Your mother can rest now, with no more pain, no more suffering. she's in a much more better place than this crazy world that we live in. My deepest thoughts and prayer goes out too you and your family. Your mother was giving from above, is now gone home for god to love, Oh, don't get me wrong god always loves her, she just gone home. I know she will be greatly missed, but never forgotten by family love. Only one maker know what she hear and see, shes taking her heavenly wings and knows shes free. One day yall will see hear again in a crowd, And yall will hold her and be so proud. Until this glorious appear, Only god can console you and your family tears.##imported-begin##Olga Sinkfield##imported-end##

“ Sandy and family, Please accept my sincere condolences on the death of your mother. Mothers are so very special its simply hard to come to terms with them not physically being part of your life. However, we know that "energy" makes up our bodies and "energy" is ALWAYS present. What a gift from GOD to know that the energy/spirit of the people we love never dies and is always around us. I know your mother left knowing how much you loved her. Just know that she soars in peace and with the love of GOD.##imported-begin##Wilma Jones Scott##imported-end##

“ "I tell you the truth, if a man keeps my word, he will never see death." John 8:51 - Aunt Margaret taught me how to give unconditionally and to understand that we are a gift from GOD to to the world for only a minute. I know she is in heaven resting with GOD. She is a saint that GOD will say "A JOB WELL DONE. LOVE ALWAYS YOUR NEPHEW ALLEN##imported-begin##Allen Taylor##imported-end##
