

Margaret V. Grant

January 23, 1927 - December 16, 2004

Margret Virginia Colona Grant was born on January 23, 1927 to the late George E. Colona and Z. Virginia Colona. She was the oldest of five children. After a lengthy illness, the Lord called Margaret home on Thursday, December 16, 2004. Margaret began her Christian walk at an early age as a Seventh Day Adventist. She was a long standing member of Berea Temple, where she served and delighted in teaching Sabbath School. Margaret was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. She also graduated from the Baltimore Bible College, an accomplishment that she cherished. She was employed and retired from the Veterans Administration, where she was honored with numerous awards. Margaret lived a full life at every stage. In her MORNING she cultivated a strong, endearing love for her mother and siblings. In her NOON she was very gregarious, out-going and out-spoken. She enjoyed traveling and was a very active member of the "Distinguished Ten." Most of all she loved the family gatherings. Also, sewing, knitting and crocheting. Making beautiful blankets, hats, and sweaters. She felt challenged watching Jeopardy and prided herself with accurate answers. In her EVENING she studied, practiced and ministered her faith; watering the souls of those she encountered. Affectionately known as "Mert," she will always be remembered for her iced tea (don't forget the lemons), spaghetti and apple pie. Her "green thumb" was a gift multiplied; and her smile and singing talk we will never forget. Margaret leaves to mourn: a devoted sister, Doris Colona Travis; devoted goddaughter, Pamela C. McDowell; adopted sister, Elaine

Jackson; adopted brother, Morris Sessoms; sister-in-law, Jeannette Colona; brother-in-law, Raymond Dorsey; and a host of loving nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, great-great-nieces and great-great-nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends, including ex-husband and friend, William Grant, Sr.

Tribute Wall

“ Margaret V. Grant

March 25, 2023 at 10:25 AM

“ Margaret V. Grant

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Doris and Family, We were sorry to hear about the loss of our neighbor Mrs. Margaret. Although it's hard to understand just why these things must be, still may you find some comfort in these words of sympathy. And in the thought and memories of the things she did and said, will keep your love one close to you through all the days ahead. Brenda (2833)##imported-begin##Brenda Royster and Family##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the Family: Please accept my deepest sympathy. May you all find comfort from Jehovah God the Father of tender mercies and the God of comfort..", who promises that soon there will be a resurrection of those who went asleep in death. 2 Corinthians 1:3,4 and John 5:28,29.##imported-begin##gbowers##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ My condolences to the family. In difficult times such as this, it is comforting to know that "Jehovah is near to those that are broken at heart, and those crushed in spirit he saves" Psalm 34:18. May you all draw strength from the scriptures.##imported-begin##Vanessa Adams##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Dear Family, I am so sorry to hear of the passing of your loved one. The Bible holds out promises that we can put our complete faith and trust in. One such promise is found at 1 Corinthians 15:26 where we are told that the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing. May you put faith and trust in this promise because that is a wonderful hope to look forward to. Again, please accept my condolences on the passing of your loved one.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the family, please accept my sincere condolences during this time of your loss. Please read and find comfort in John 5:28,29 and Rev. 21:3,4. God promises to do away with death and the pain that it causes. May these scriptures bring you strength and encouragement during your time of sorrow.##imported-begin##Sean##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM