

Margaret V. McCoy

July 23, 1906 - November 20, 2002

Margaret Virginia (Kyler) McCoy was born in Calvert County, Maryland, on June 20, 1907, to the late Frank Kyler and Maggie (Estep) Kyler. She departed this life on November 20, 2002, at Sinai Hospital. Margaret was educated in the public schools of Calvert County. For many years she worked as a beautician and later became a Registered Nurse. She did not retire from nursing until her late 80's. She joined New Shiloh Baptist Church at an early age, on Fremont Avenue and Lanvale Street. She was joined in Holy Matrimony to the late George McCoy and they had one son, the late Robert Jenkins. Her fourteen siblings preceded her in death. She was kind and loving, very generous, and she loved children. When she was a child, her face would light up with a smile. She was a part of many ministries in the church. She was an active part of the Nurses Ministry and Senior Circle. She enjoyed working in the service of the Lord. She leaves to cherish her memory: one sister, Helen Mackall, one brother, Robert Kyler, a special niece, Dorothy Wheatley, who was her caregiver, a host of nephews and nieces, great and great-great nephews and nieces, her favorite cousin, Mary Hopkins, three godchildren, Minister Gordon Baker, Shana Baker, and Zethray Owens. She was very fond of Deacons William and Millie Shaw, who gave her communion monthly. Deacon's Mamie Thompson, Lillious Bryant, and Sister Mary Smith visited with her often.

Tribute Wall

“ Margaret V. McCoy

March 25, 2023 at 10:25 AM

“ Margaret V. McCoy

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ I feel as if I know you from the conversations I had with Dorothy. Dorothy loved and admired you so much. Down life's path we travel, till at the end of the path, we must go alone, to where our Heavenly Father awaits, to welcome us home.##imported-begin##Jacquie C. Perry##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ The tears that dampen our eyes in time of mourning are tears of homesickness, tears of longing for our loved ones. But it is we who are away from home, not they! Death has been for them a doorway to an eternal home. They are still with us, lovingly and tenderly waiting for the day when we, too, will enter the doorway of our eternal home. It is such a mistake to see death as separation and nothing more. For us who believe, death is a preparation for eternal union with those we love, in peace and in joy.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM