“ I send my warm and heartfelt condolences to the family at this most difficult time. Losing a loved one in death is so difficult for a family to deal with, and death was never a part of God's purpose for us. When he created Adam he gave him a perfect start in life, and a beautiful paradise earth to live on, but sadly Adam and Eve did not appreciate those blessings. Yet God's purpose for the earth has not changed, because Isaiah 25:8 tells us that he did not create the earth simply for nothing, but created it to be inhabited. One day Psalm 37:29 tells us that the righteous ones will possess the earth and they will reside forever upon it. Even the dead will share in these blessings, because Acts 24"15 says that there will be a ressurection. May these wonderful promises give you a hope for the future, and help you to cope with your loss.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ To the Family, Please accept my condolences. May you find comfort in the hope of the resurrection that Jesus demonstrated with his friend Lazarus at John 11:38-44. May these verses strengthen and encourage you during this time.##imported-begin##Mrs. Howard##imported-end##

“ I would like to express my sincere condolences for the loss of your loved one. The Bible teaches about a future time when all those in the memorial tombs will come out by means of a resurrection (John5:28-29) to life on a paradise earth (Psalm37:11,29). May you find solace in the God of all comfort (2Cor1:3-4) and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##
