

Margery Helena Wilkens

May 5, 1928 - March 23, 2018

On Friday, March 23, 2018, MARGERY HELENA WILKENS was quietly called home to be with the Lord.

Margery affectionately known as "Helena" was born to late Paul and Alice Jackson on May 5, 1928 in Hanover County, Virginia.

Margery was raised and educated in Virginia. She then moved to Baltimore, Maryland where she worked and retired as a domestic assistant.

Margery was very active in her church. She was a member of First New Life Baptist Church, in Baltimore, Maryland. She loved attending church and fellowshiping with her friends. Margery served as a missionary and on the trustee board.

Margery enjoyed traveling, collecting, souvenir plates and tee shirts representing her places of travel. She was also an honorary member of the Main Avenue Seniors for 15 years and the Mount Moriah Gems for 18 years. Margery's favorite dessert pleasure was chocolate.

Margery was preceded in death by her husband, Calvin Wilkens, son, Lester Floyd Brown, and brother, Floyd Brown.

Margery leaves to mourn: granddaughter, Denise V. Brown; great-granddaughter Deniseia B. Dorkins; her sister-in-law Doris Brown; devoted cousin "son", James Mines; and host of nieces, nephews, cousins and good friends.
