

Margestine Whitehead- Wiggins

May 24, 1943 - August 2, 2013

Margestine Wiggins, daughter of the late James E. Whitehead and the late Rosa Lee Wright, was born on May 24, 1943 in Rocky Mount, North Carolina. She was fifth of six children. She was called to her eternal home on August 2, 2013 after a short battle with a chronic illness. "Margie," as she was so lovingly known, received her education in the Rocky Mount City Public School System. Margie was so adamant about education that she received her GED in 1989 from the Baltimore City Public School System. Margie worked various jobs throughout her life, but she really enjoyed working as a school bus driver for mentally challenged children and later in hospitals as a TV services specialist. Margie married the love of her life, John T. Wiggins on June 17, 1979. They renewed their vows on March 4, 2011. She was truly loved by all the people she came in contact with. She was known for being straightforward and giving the best advice. She was preceded in death by her parents; three siblings, Marquette Whitehead, Geraldine Whitehead-Cannon and Gloria Jean Whitehead; and one daughter, Pamela Whitehead. She leaves to mourn: her husband, John T. Wiggins; four daughters, Tanya Chatman, Sharon Mullins and Kimberly Whitehead of Baltimore, MD and Jajuan Burwell of Hampton, VA; two sons, George L. Alston, Jr. and Devon Boyd of Baltimore, MD; two sons-in-law, Will Mullins and Arthur Burwell; one brother, Joe Charles Whitehead of Colorado Springs, CO; one sister, Rosa Whitehead-Brown of NC; a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, other relatives and friends. We Hate to See You Go to our lovely mother, we hate to see you go. You were a wonderful woman, and to meet your qualities there was no other. When it came to the children, your tolerance was low, this is why we hate to see you go. We won't forget the sparkle in your eyes, and the stories you would tell, they would be... oh, so wise! We will never forget all the good times we shared, and through your lifetime, I'm glad you cared. We hate to see you go, though this is how it has to be. We will cherish your love eternally. “ Grandma Margie, you always had a joke to tell me, a word of wisdom or two & we stayed laughing. I cherish all our good times. From the bowling tournaments when I was little, to my random visits just to say hey, to the Tokyo Buffet earlier this yr when you taught my son how to eat Lobster. That memory still makes me smile. Take care of my mom for me.. love u always Granny.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

“ Granny, reminiscing on that summer that i got to stay with you, it was fun and i remember how you use to talk to me about EVERYTHING! Staying up at night and sitting on the porch, gosh, i miss you, lady... I know that i didn't get to talk to you everyday but i sure was happy when i did, right along with your text messages! I love you and i will see you again!

“ Granny, I thank God for Jesus for placing me in your life. You were there for all of my events. Any time I had to write a paper on my "role model" or who "inspired" me, she was ALWAYS my topic. She was one of my best friends. I can't share just one memory because they're so many. I will just say "Thank you, Granny, for being you and developing me.
Forever yours.
