“ Margie M. Johnson-Christian, a family jewel and my hero. In our times together, she was always positive thinking no matter what was going. In Margie's Rhetoric one could find hope and strength to continue to believe in better days ahead, and if doors were closed, then create other options.

Margie is my first cousin and the first granddaughter to our immediate family on her mother's side. I remember when I was a little boy; I would sometimes spend the weekend at her home in Arkansas, and I would wrestle with her as she tried to give me a bath before bed.

Margie would be so kind and patient with me like a big sister and those are the many still moments I cherish. I am so proud of her accomplishments, education, and most of all seeing establish her very own martial family (our family) simply brought me joy each every time I got a chance to see or visit them. Christian family please know I love you and Margie is forever loved. ~Nitoric Jenkins~ (aka Hot Rod) :)

“ I am so sorry for your loss. May "the God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) comfort and soothe your heart. His promises, found in the Holy Scriptures, can offer much hope. It assures us at John 5:28,29 that our loved ones will be remembered and brought back to life in the resurrection. Please allow God's Word to strengthen you and help you to endure this most difficult time.

“ Margie- Not a day goes by when I don't think about you, your laugh, your strength, your kindness, and your will to survive. Even when you were sick, you would always ask how Zadie was doing. I am thankful for knowing you, having you in my life, and especially for our last day together- listening to our song in the car, our time spent in the park, and sharing laughs on your deck in the heat, your Army hat shading your face from the sun. And I'll never forget your love for Ian. I miss you. -D

“ It must be devastating for the family to lose someone so beautiful and young. May you find inner strength and peace in your precious memories shared with Margie. She is not forgotten by our loving heavenly father who holds our loved ones close to his heart. One day she will rise again, in the precious promise of the resurrection. At John 11:25 Jesus himself said: I am the resurrection and the life. He who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life. Put all of your trust in God's promises, because he never fails to fulfill his word. Isaiah 55:11

“ I remember the sound of Margie's laughter when we were in high school. She was always such a joy to be around. I am deeply saddened by the loss of her, but know that God's comfort and peace is able to walk you, her family, through each day, moment by moment. I pray God will fill your void with Himself as only He can do. He is truly the only real help in a time of deep loss. Felicia K Brandon Manning

“ I remember playing jump rope many times over at East Side Elementary with Margie. Of course we went all the way through school together. The thing I remember most is the smile and the laugh. There are some people that you never just forget that way. My God grant you peace and comfort. I am truly sorry for your loss.

“ *As you pray to Jehovah for comfort and peace, may Jehovah grant it to you so that you can continue down life's highway.
(Psalm 55:22) Throw your burden upon Jehovah himself, And he himself will sustain you. Never will he allow the righteous one to totter.*

“ I am absolutely loss for words, my heart is full of sadness. But the grief you must feel can't be measured in words. Margie deeply loved her family, she talked about you all with so much love in her heart. Also, I want the family to know that Margie has so many friends who loves her dearly and we cherished the times we all spent together; she will remain in our hearts. Please know that you all are in my thoughts and prayers. I pray that the "God of all Comfort" will give you peace and the power to endure during this difficult time of sorrow and healing.

“ *I can't comprehend just how sad you must feel
For the loss of someone you love.
This sorrowful time must still feel unreal
And you're looking for strength from above.*

*I hope, from my heart, that your pain will decrease,
That your spirit will gain strength again,
And I pray that your faith will create inner peace
And that God will send his blessings*

*Till then, if you need me to lighten your load,
I'm waiting to come to your aid.
Just call on me,*

*Deep condolences,

“ Loosing a loved one in death is unbearable but in God's word the Bible there is reassurance for the families of those that lost loved ones in death. John 5: 28,29 " do not marvel at this for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs hear his (Jesus) voice and come out." This scripture is telling us that our loved ones will be ressurected. Revelations 21:4 " and he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more neither mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore, the former things have passed away. Jehovah God not only promises a that we will see our loved ones again but that death will be done away with. I encourage you to read these scriptures with your personal copy of God's word the Bible. My deepest sympathy goes out to the family and friends.

Welcome home, Margie. Another angel watching over all of us. You are and will truly be missed, but never forgotten. A great nurse, mother and friend. It was an honor knowing you and spending so much time with you-I will never forget. My thoughts are with your family. Everyone here at Sitter & Barfoot Veteran's Care Center loves you. Rest in peace, my friend.
