

Margie D. Royster

December 20, 1918 - May 26, 2004

Margie D. Royster, daughter of the late James F. DeShazo and Kinnie DeShazo, was born on December 20, 1918 in Woodsdale, North Carolina. She departed this life on May 26, 2004 after a lengthy illness. She received her education at Person County High School. She worked many years as a domestic and then later became a full time employee of American Canteen in Fort Meade, Maryland. She was a life long member of Allen Chapel Methodist in Woodsdale, North Carolina. She married William T. Royster (who preceded her in death) and to that union two children were born, Lorraine and the late Ardelia Royster Coleman. Margie made numerous friends throughout her years and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew her. She was a devoted mother and grandmother. She leaves to mourn: one sister, Ada Smith of East Baltimore; one daughter, Marjorie Lorraine Cooper; one son-in-law, Leon L. Cooper; one granddaughter, Monique Gray; one grandson, Harold Coleman Jr.; three grandchildren, Brenon Royster, Brandon Royster and Harold Coleman, III; two nephews, Wallace DeShazo and James Smith; two nieces, Greta Harrison and Barbara Walker; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at John 11:25,26 where Jesus says "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life; and everyone that is living and exercises faith in me will never die at all." May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##
