

Margie Marie Scott

October 4, 1930 - January 28, 2011

Margie Marie Scott was born on October 4, 1930 in Tabb, Virginia to the late Missie and Ola Hopson. She was the elder of two children. She grew up and attended school in Tabb. She met and married Squire Kyles in 1949. TO this union was born a son, Michael Kedrick Kyles. In this marriage Margie moved and lived in various military locations around the U.S. Squire Kyles passed in 1970. In 1974 Margie married James Scott and was happily married for 10 years until his death in 1984. She retired from the Arlington County Treasurer's Office in 1995 and moved to Richmond two years later. After moving here Margie worked for Dr. James Jones part-time. This was a job that she loved until her health began to fail. Margie enjoyed the Red Hat Club, African Violet Club and Better Breathers Club.

She will live in the memories of her son, Michael Kyles, MD and his wife Deborah; her beloved grandson, Michael Kyles, JJ; a devoted brother, Walter Hopson and his wife LaDonna; two nephews, Nicholas and Lee Hopson; three nieces, Catrina Richardson and her husband Micolus, Veronica Langhorne, and Lydia Prysock; two great nieces, Brittany and Kayla Richardson; one sister-in-law, Rita Kyles and her much loved dog, Angel.
