

Marguerite Wright

September 5, 1942 - July 4, 2010

MARGUERITE WRIGHT was born on September 5, 1942 to the late Martha Jane Wright and Issom "Ike" Session Wright. She was born in Greenville, South Carolina. They later moved to Baltimore, Maryland when she was three years old. She was the seventh born child of ten. Marguerite received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System and was extremely gifted in mathematics.

Marguerite's first job was working in a convenience store where she was a cashier, which wasn't surprise because she was excellent at handling money. Marguerite had outstanding business skills and the potential to be an entrepreneur. This characteristic lives on through her offspring and their children. She was considered a "girly girl" who loved cooking, sewing and shopping. Mom Dukes also took interest in reading and watching game shows, Wheel of Fortune being her favorite. She wasn't afraid of a challenge. Marguerite was a fun-loving person and loved the company of anyone that could make her laugh. Her children were her best friends; they stuck together no matter the circumstances. Marguerite accepted Christ and joined Bethany Baptist Church where she was baptized. She left this earth after a lengthy illness. We remember her as a provider, extending her finances, her support and her love to whom ever was in need.

She leaves to cherish her memor: her children, Richard Williams, Jimmy Williams, Jacqueline Williams and Stephanie Meadows; brother, Sammy Wright; and sister, Mary Lee Wright who was beyond concerned about her well being and checked on her daily; eleven grandkids Latonya, Harry, Tiara, late Lakeshia, Sade, Latashia, Brittany, Jimmy, Richard, Ronald and Destiny sho was very near and dear to her heart; six great-grandchildren, Makyla, Harrym Makiya, Shaniya, Tyler and Treasure; two sisters-in-law, Edith Wright and Ernestine Wright; son-in-law, James Walker; and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends including one very loyal friend, Ms. frances.

To know Marguerite was to love her, she may have been misunderstood by many, but she was a beautiful individual inside and out.
