“ So very sorry to learn of Maria's passing. We went to Forest Park together and was in a club from Junior high until we graduated. Not only were we in school together but her mom and my mother knew each other from high school. In later years, Maria took care of my son Leon. The family has my sincere condolences.

Maria was an effervescent girl who grew to be an even more magnificent woman. We shared many days and nights dreaming of the future and what it would bring. She was deeply spiritual and always loving. I'm certain her heaven has welcomed her with joy while we mourn our loss. Rest well Maria. My prayer is for her family's healing and strength in the time ahead.
