

Marian Williams

December 30, 1934 - March 30, 2006

MARIAN M. WILLIAMS, daughter of Nani Morris and the late Harvey Demby, was born December 30, 1934 at City Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland. She gracefully said "Good Bye" to this life and "Hello" to her everlasting on March 30, 2006 after a lengthy illness. She received her education at Carver High School in Baltimore. After school, she was employed at the University of Maryland Medical Center full-time as a pharmacist assistant. Her life-long employment was as a caregiver to all-young and old. She thrived on the belief of treating others as YOU would want to be treated, and wouldn't ask questions when someone was in need. She adopted this and many other teachings of Christ at St. Gregory's Church. She married Walter Lee Williams and out of this union six children were born, Frank, Deborah, Portia, Antonio, Anthony and Laleta. Marian touched all who knew her. Her warm, devoted heart eased countless souls while here on earth, and her sacrifice and unmentionable courage will assure her eternal life in heaven. She leaves to mourn: her mother, Nani Morris; six children, Deborah Chidebelu, Frank, Portia, Antonio, Anthony and Laleta Williams; brother, Joseph Hampton; sister, Haloria Bey; fourteen grandchildren, fourteen great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Marian Williams

---

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ My sincere condolences to the family and friends of Mrs. Williams. I am sorry to learn of your recent loss. It may seem so unfair that death has the power to take away someone we love. At Acts 24:15, Almighty God promise a "resurrection" into a beautiful paradise. He even promise at Revelation 21:4 that "death" would be no more. Please be encourage that Almighty God, Jehovah knows our pains and sufferings and give us the hope of the resurrection.##imported-begin##V Adams##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Death is a harsh and devastating interruption to life a precious gift of God. Yet in most of our lives today we see death as our final eventuality accepted by many. However our heavenly father Jehovah God, the giver of life promises that one day in our near future death will be no more. As Revelations 21:3-4 states “God will wipe every tear from our eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor out cry nor pain be anymore.” How truly happy we all will be not to ever be threaten by death because it is Jehovah God’s promise to us according to Psalms 37:29 for the righteous ones to live forever on earth. Another hopeful awaiting thought in our future is all those who have lost their lives to death or the lost of our love ones, Jehovah God says according to John 5:28,29 all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus voice and come out. Yes these ones will live again! We all can hold fast to this because Titus 1:2 states: upon the basis of hope of everlasting life, which God, who cannot lie promised before times long lasting. Such a comforting thought to know our having life forever was always Jehovah God’s promised purpose for us.##imported-begin##B Carter##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Sorry to hear about your loss.May God bless each and everyone in the family and keep the faith.##imported-begin##Linda Morris##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ So very sorry that you lost your loved one in death. May you look to God's word as a source of comfort and strength to get you through the days ahead without your loved one until the joyful time of the resurrection comes about. His word at Daniel 12:2 lets us know that there will be many of those asleep in the ground of the dust who will wake up. So one wonderful day in the near future we will have an opportunity to be reunited with our loved ones if we are faithful. May your precious memories sustain you until that glorious day arrives.##imported-begin##R Johnaon##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ to the family and friends of marian williams I send a renewed message of hope. it's been a while, yet 2006 is the same year that my one year old grandson died and I know that periodically the memory kicks in. our loved ones are never, ever really forgotten. since I have the hope of seeing my grandson again and it's comforting to me, I would like to extend that hope to those who miss ms. williams so much. Revelation 21:4 says " He will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore" ,and john 5:28,29 says that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out ...", Isaiah 33:24 says "no resident will say: 'i'm sick'. there are so many wonderful promises of God in his word, the Bible and all these things will take place during a time when there will be no more crime and violence and the earth would have been transformed into a paradise. truly wonderful promises all at a time when you can see your dear loved ones resurrected, never to die again. In order for those still alive now to see these things, there are requirements of them by God. please allow me to show you from the Bible, what God requires of you. my e-mail address is:commander9195@verizon.net. I look forward to hearing from you soon.##imported-begin##kathy commander##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM