“ In these troubled times, we all face storms. There are economic hardships, depression, failing health, the loss of a loved one in death - such tempests assail all of us at one time or another, and sometimes we cannot avoid them. It moves us to see persons who appear quite frail show surprising strength enduring such onslaughts. Often, faith is a key (James 1:3). Another key is hope (1 Thessalonians 4:13), there is the hope of the resurrection (John 5: 28, 29; Acts 24:15). This knowledge gives us hope, that hope, in turn, gradually softens grief. This hope helps us to endure. You can find many more encouraging Scriptures @ www.jw.org. May God continue to comfort your family in this stressful time of need.

“ I am sorry to read about your loss. May God's words in the Bible at Ps 34:18 provide you comfort. The scriptures tells us "HE" is near to those broken at heart, and those crushed in spirit HE saves.

“ Dear Barry Family;

While reading the online obituary, I observed the death of your love one.

Death is an enemy to all mankind and who can understand it? It can and dose have a devastating effect on you and your family as well.

Can you imagine reading a newspaper with the headline: "When Death Is Swallowed Up Forever..." What a wonderful time that will be. Revelation 21:4 offers this hope, it states, "And he (God) Will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will morning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." What a comforting hope.

If you would be interested in learning even more, I can send you a little tract that is entitled "What Hope For Dead Loved Ones"? I am not selling anything or conducting any business of any sort, not now or ever. I am just showing Neighborly love like what (Mark 12:31) mentions. If you have any questions please feel free to contact me at this e-mail address here (b.molina56@yahoo.com).

I offer my sincere condolences and my the God of peace be with you and your family.

*Sincerely Yours,
Brandy Molina*

“ Please accept my heartfelt sympathies in the loss of your dear loved one. How comforting in knowing Almighty God has not only the power but also the desire to resurrect our loved ones. Jesus himself said: "Do not amazed at this,for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." John 5:28,29
