

Marie Harris Clayborne

February 2, 1952 - December 2, 2015

Marie Harris Clayborne, affectionately known as “Vivian”, was born to the late Josephine Thomas and Len Atkins on February on February 2, 1952. She departed this life on December 2, 2015 and was preceded in death by her brother Ronald Harris.

Marie attended Richmond Public Schools and was a member of Trinity Baptist Church. She worked for Stony Point Surgery Center for over 20 years. More than anything, Marie loved her family and she was a good friend to many. Her smile and infectious laugh will be greatly missed.

She leaves to cherish her memory a loving and devoted husband, George A. Calyborne; daughters, Angela Johnson and Dionne Hill (Daryll); son, Leon Pleasants (Surina); stepdaughter, Lisa Anderson (Frank); thirteen grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; brother, James Brown (Dagmar); devoted friend, Janie Smith; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road

And the sun has set for me

I want no rites in gloom-filled rooms

Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little--but not too long

And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me--but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.It's all a part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know
And busy your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss me - but let me go.
