

Marie Harris

June 6, 1927 - April 24, 2020

Marie Moss Harris was born to the late Lucinda & Ollie Moss, Sr. on June 6, 1927 in Richmond, Va. She departed this life on April 24, 2020. Preceding her in death were three siblings: Ollie Moss, Jr., Spencer Moss, Elizabeth Burrell; and one son: George Jackson, Sr.

At a young age, Marie was baptized at Mount Calvary Baptist Church in Providence Forge, Virginia. She was educated in the New Kent County Public School system and afterwards, became a successful entrepreneur. She was a hard worker who survived the Great Depression and the Civil Rights Era among other trying times. Marie was a single mother of three children who purchased her first home on North Avenue in Richmond, and at one time, owned four houses.

Marie loved flowers and was an avid fan of wrestling. A very social woman who never met a stranger, she was a very sophisticated, classy lady who dressed to impress. Her outside appearance was just a replica of the care shown to others as she was always lending a helping hand. As the Neighborhood Watch Captain, she built strong relationships with public officials, teachers, lawyers, and community leaders. Her presence in her community and among her family will be sorely missed.

Left to cherish all of her wonderful memories are one daughter, Jeannette

Robinson; one son, Claude Jackson, Sr.; one brother, Charles Moss, Sr.; seven grandchildren; a host of great-grandchildren, one great great-grandchild; and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

WE

While I did not know Mrs Harris personally, I count her daughter, Jeannette, as a close personal friend. If she is any reflection of her mother, then her mother must have been a caring, responsible and loving person. I extend my deepest sympathy to Jeannette and Clintone in the transitioning of Mrs. Harris and Mr. Jackson. From your Friend at Midnight.
