

Marie Jennings

April 23, 1904 - March 12, 2007

For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith” II Timothy 4:6-7

MARIE JENNINGS, daughter of the late Horace and Leanna Jennings, was born April 28, 1904 in Crewe, Virginia. Marie, a long time resident of the Maryland Baptist Aged Home, passed away quietly at Bon Secours Hospital on March 12, 2007. She was 102 years of age. She was often heard saying, in her last days, “Time is nigh the day is almost gone.” Marie accepted Christ at an early age and spent her life as an evangelist, sharing the gospel, ministering to individuals in her neighborhood, community and church. “Momma Marie,” as she was called, cared for disabled men and women until illness prevented her from doing so. She was a member of Mt. Zion Hill Baptist Church. Marie was a loving, mother, grandmother, aunt and homemaker. Her favorite pastimes were cooking and canning. She also had an appreciation for music and good singing. She loved to hear her son, Reverend Clarence Poole sing “How Tedious and Tasteless the Hour.” In the spirit of humility and without arrogance, Marie tried to be an acceptable servant of God. She was a woman full of wisdom and gave advice even if you did not agree with what she said. She was preceded in death by: her son, Reverend Clarence Poole; sisters, Inez and Marceline Jennings and Flossie M. Nole; and a brother, McCarroll Ward. Marie is survived by: grandchildren, Clarence E. Poole Jr., Edythe Poole, Walter M. Forrest and Leonard Lambert; and a host of great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, and the staff of the Maryland Baptist Aged Home.

“ I offer my condolences to the family of Mrs. Jennings. I'm so sorry for your loss. Even though she lived a long life by today's standards, did you know that it is God's purpose for people to live forever amid peaceful conditions? Yes, dear family, one day there will be no more sickness, old-age, or death, and mankind will rejoice in being able to live life to the full without any sort of suffering or sorrow. At Rev21"4 The bible says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. "The former things have passed away." May you be comforted in knowing that one day you can be reunited with your loved on by means of the promised resurrection. Please know that many care about what you are going through, and may the prayers of your loved ones and friends help you to cope with your loss.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
