

Marie Keith Hill-Simpson

December 9, 1920 - July 21, 2004

Marie Keith Hill-Simpson, daughter of Elsie Keith and Chester Chalk, was born on December 9, 1920 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on Wednesday, July 21, 2004. Marie attended the Baltimore City Schools. She grew up in the area of N. Caroline St. She started her work career as a “switchboard operator: for the Espanade, but found her most rewarding work history in the medical field as the office manager and assistant to Dr. Louise Young, her god-mother, for about ten years. She later spent many enjoyable years teaching as a long-term substitute teacher at Booker T. Washington, Jr. High School and retired from her teaching career after many years of teaching at Western Sr. High School; a school that two of her daughters, Yvonne and Shawan attended. She decided to return to working in a medical office and spent eleven years working with Dr. Piriya Pinit. When Dr. Pinit finally closed his doors to serving women and delivering babies, Marie went to help her daughter, Shawan to manage her corporation, The Gregory Foundation and there she served as a Receptionist and Advisor, until she rally retired in December 2002. She was a hard worker and dedicated to whatever she made a commitment to do. She took pride in all that she did and all that she had. Marie adored her children. She spent a great deal of her time with her children, and helping to care for her grandchildren and great grandchildren. She especially enjoyed helping others. She loved to help others, she helped to organize fashion shows, supporting the Waxter Center, she was an active participant in her church, St. Katherine’s. She was an active member of the Women's Guild, she hosted the church's annual "Stay at Home Tea," assisted with the annual church's Dinner Dance, and a host of other activities, Marie would willingly help out. She also spent lots of her time doing what she loved, exploring the world with her many trips and cruises with her longtime girlfriends. She loved to sew, and was quite the seamstress, making a lot of those beautiful, creative ensembles we often saw her wear and model in some of Flair's Fashion Shows. She loved clothes and had shoes galore. She was known for her stylish dress, creative flair and for speaking her mind. In her later days, she loved to watch old movies and action videos. Those who knew her for her warm and friendly demeanor, her wit and grand sense of humor loved her. She had a very determined spirit and was a warrior "Queen," elegant, strong and loving. In March of 2003, Marie experienced a grave illness that would challenge her in ways that many of us could not imagine. She persevered in many instances, overcoming obstacles and maintaining her faith. But, on July 21, 2004 God decided that enough is enough and carried Marie, a.k.a. "Mumsie" home. Marie leaves to cherish her memory: her devoted children, Robert Carr, Yvonne Williams, Shawan Patterson Jackson, and Barry Walden; two step-daughters, Nadine Nixon and Jean-Carroll Walden Willoughby; sons-in-law, Nathaniel Willoughby, Joseph Nixon and Laurence E. Jackson; daughters-in-law, Joyce Walden; grandchildren, D. Jerome Moore and his wife Brenda, Jamal D. Patterson and his wife Kelly, Rob Jr., Ava, Joseph, Jr., Sherry, Lisa, Wanda, Jeanette, Jaye Kier, Francine and Frankie; great-grandchildren, Miah Marie, Aisha, Rob and Cyril; brother, Wilbur Giles and his wife Mary; a spirit daughter, Patsy Jackson; and a special long-time friend, Dorothy Barmer.

“ My condolences on the loss of your dear loved one. Our family finds much comfort in the promises of the Bible. 1 Corinthians 15:26 rightly calls death an "enemy" that will be "destroyed". And Isaiah 26:19 promises- "Your dead ones will live... They will rise up." I hope that these promises add to your strength in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future and our loved ones who have lost their life to our enemy death.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
