“ I send my sincere sympathy to the family of Marie. Death brings much pain and sorrow to the loved ones left behind, and it is a most difficult thing to come to terms with. This is why Jehovah sent his dear Son Jesus, to make it possible for us to receive everlasting life, through our faith in the ransom sacrifice that he made in our behalf. Because of the Love of Jehovah and of the Christ, one day sickness and death will be a thing of the past, because Jehovah promises that he will swallow up death forever, and certainly wipe the tears from all faces. Isaiah 25,8. Daniel 12,2 also promise that there will be many of those who are asleep in the dust who will wake up. They will hear the voice of Jesus, and many will come out of those memorial tombs. John 5:28,29. I hope that you receive the comfort and the strength that you need to continue on, and may your precious memories of Maries help you to cope with her loss.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ May I send my condolences to you all, the family and friends. Lossing a dear loved one breaks the circle of life for all. Ms. Marie lived for almost 81 years. Just think what life would be like when we will live for ever as the bible say at Isa.25:9, death will be no more gone. Imagine the happiness to be our when the dead are resurrected back to life on a paradise earth. I am looking forward to that happening. May all the many cherished memories and precious times shared support you all on the road of life.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##

“ Nana there will never be another person like you to grace the face of this earth in my eyes. You are who I strive to become in strength. I love you so much. The hardest and most rewarding thing I have done was writing your obituary. I love you so much. I know that you are watching over me. I thank you for the gift of faith. Through you I learned to walk in God's words. I am still a work in progress, but now I know that anything is possible with God. Thank you for all of the late nights and long talks over the years. You will never know the profound impact they have made in my life. I hope to see you again some day. Loving you always.##imported-begin##Sharhonda Martin##imported-end##
