

Marie Simms

July 12, 1914 - May 8, 2015

After gracing the world with her presence for over 100 years, on Friday, May 8, 2015, Marie Simms went peacefully into eternal rest. She was the wife of the late Isaac Oliver Simms, Sr. This union lovingly produced 14 children.

She was born on July 15, 1914 and attended Baltimore City schools. She was an excellent clothing designer and seamstress, and made wardrobes for not only her family, but for others as well. She was an expert in all type crafts. She enjoyed doing crossword puzzles and learned to use the computer to play games at 90 years old.

Marie loved the Loved and was an active member of Shiloh CC Church for many years before becoming a member at her last church home, St. Bernadine's Catholic Church, where she remained an active member.

She enjoyed having Bible study and listening to all types of music with her sons, and being the wife of a former Gospel singer, gospel music was her favorite. She will be remembered for her kindness and generosity and her beautiful smile that lit up any room she entered.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Isaac Oliver and 9 of their children. Her memory will be cherished by her 5 remaining children, Mary Brown, Thomas, James, Yusef, Vance and a host of grandchildren, nieces, nephews and friends.
