

Marie Smith

November 20, 1922 - June 19, 2010

Marie Smith, daughter of the late Mary Jones Privett and Major Robertson was the last of eleven siblings born on November 20, 1922 in Wake County, Raleigh, North Carolina. She departed this life on June 19, 2010 after a lengthy illness.

She received her education in the Wake County School System. She had to leave school early in Junior High School to stay home and take care of her father and grandmother until their time expired. (She never had a childhood) She worked many years on the farm and in 1948 she met her beloved husband, Walter. They were married on November 5, 1948. Together they created seven children. In 1957 they moved the family to Baltimore, Maryland. Here she was employed as a maid, nurse's assistance and her last job was at Segal Majestic where she dealt with Photography before she retired.

She was a member of New Union Baptist Church since 1969. While there she attended service every Sunday faithful and if she couldn't make it to her church by car, she would walk to Concord Baptist Church, as long long as she could serve God she was happy. Marie made numerous friends and was loved by everyone who came in contact with her. She would help and take care of "anyone" who needed it without a second thought. She took care of everything inside the home that needed to be done without a question. (she did it)

Marie was very rich with love and had many-many blessing here in this life and will be greatly missed by everyone who knew her.

She was proceeded in death by her two son, Walter Jr. and Sylvester and one daughter, Patricia.

She leaves to mourn: her husband, Walter Smith Sr.; three sons, Robert, Eugene and Maverick; one daughter, Lilly; sixteen grandchildren, twenty-eight great-grandchildren, and five great-great grandchildren.
