“ In remembrance of Mrs. Marie P. Washington
Mrs. Marie was a TRUE friend of my mother from their early childhood days, I can only guest at the reason they stayed so close throughout their lives is because they had like soles and spirts the type of sole one could only call “KIND “ just good hearted. As we get older we tend to reflect more and start to recognize people we should all strive to be like. Mrs. Marie would be an excellent example of one of a few I would strive to be more like.

I can remember as a young child whenever there was a special occasion sometimes Mrs. Marie would be there and that made my mother happy to know her good friend Marie was there to celebrate with her and her family I can only imagine that it was because, Mrs. Marie was considered FAMILY . In good times and when times weren't so good. One of the last times we gathered with my Mother as a group and my mother was in a way saying good bye she had found out that her time on this earth was coming to an end Mrs. Marie was there, as she had been all along, her good friend.

After my mother's passing, Mrs. Marie stayed in touch she would often call my farther just to say hello and keep in touch, I would often ask him “who did you talk to today” and when Mrs. Marie would call he was happy to hear from Mrs. Marie who was at this point FAMILY, it may be rare to find a friendship to last a life time. The last time I saw Mrs. Marie was at my father's funeral, her health was not at its best but as a true friend she still made it to the viewing, funeral and burial what a true friend. As the last of five children I could not say with certainty at what age their friendship began. What I believe I can say with certainty is Mrs. Marie P. Washington is with her good friends Loretta Rose and Robert Rose JR.

Sincerely,
