

Marie Williams

December 25, 1918 - April 20, 2009

Marie Williams, daughter of the late Love and Mattie Mathis, was born December 25, 1918 in Dawson, Georgia. She was one of seventeen children. Marie started working as a beautician and opened her own salon. Marie later entered the nursing field as a nursing assistant where she remained for over twenty-five years. Marie was always known as a nurturing friend, mother and grandmother. She always went above and beyond for her family's needs. Marie treasured her great-grandchildren. She will continue to be thought of and dearly missed. She leaves to mourn: three grandchildren, Tonia Bridges, Jamaal Wilson and Shayna Riggs; two great-grandchildren, Colin Knox and Joelle Riggs; two nieces whom she raised, Gloria Thompson and Frankie McGill; and a host of other relatives and friends. She will be greatly missed.

“ Hi Shayna, My condolence goes to you and your family at this time of loss. Always keep the good thoughts in mind, and remember she is in a better place watching over you. Do what she wanted you to do by achieving all of your goals and succeeding with life, until you meet her at the crossroads. Love, Trevin Langston
