“ Trishana, I am so so sorry to have learned that your beautiful mom has passed. Anyone who knew Marilyn knows how much she loved her "Cookie" and her grandchildren. It seemed she loved everybody (smile), especially her family. Scottie, my heart breaks for you too as I know how she loved you like a son. She told me many times how blessed she was when she and Steve united after loving and knowing each other for so many years. I cannot believe I'm writing this message of condolence right now. Marilyn was a big sister figure in my life with such a beautiful spirit. She helped me, as I'm sure so many others attest, during one of the most trying times of my life. I thank God for her presence, and that she is now smiling down on us from heaven above. To the entire family, God bless you all as you go through what has to be an almost unbearable loss. Please let me know if I can do anything for you. Sorrowfully submitted, Lauren--410-516-2372###imported-begin##Lauren Fowler###imported-end##

“ My sincere sympathy goes out to the family and friends of Marilyn. The death of a loved one is truly so difficult to bear, and so hard to knowing that your loved one was in the prime of her life. Jehovah God never meant for these tragedies to befall us, and he has promised a permanant end to sickness and death. Please read Isaiah 33,24, and Isaih 25,8 which are very comforting scriptures. May the promise of the ressurection be a burning flame in your hearts, because as John 5:28,29 says; one day many in the memorial tombs will hear the voice of Jesus and come our to a ressurection. May your beautiful memories you shared with Marilyn be a source of Joy and strength to you in the difficult days ahead.###imported-begin##R Johnson###imported-end##
