

Marion C. Dover

September 29, 1951 - October 6, 2021

Legacy of Life

Marion C. Dover was born September 29, 1951, and entered into eternal rest on Wednesday, October 6, 2021.

Marion joined Parrish Hill Baptist Church at an early age, being a faithful member until her illness. She was employed by the College of William and Mary for 48 years. William and Mary was home away from home. She thoroughly enjoyed talking and laughing with everyone. Her loving smile brought joy to those around her. During the Holiday season starting with Black Friday, one could find Marion C. Dover at the mall in Macy's, Dillards, or Belk. She loved shopping.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Robert N. Charity and Louise E. Charity of Charles City, Virginia; one sister, Blanche Brown; two brothers, Robert Charity Jr. and Lawrence Charity; one nephew, Thomas Brown Jr; and her two nieces, Zina R. Brooks and Maya Smith.

She leaves to cherish her memories three wonderful son's who never left her side, Bryant Charity, Shawn Charity and Khalid Dover, all of Richmond, VA; five sisters, Ernestine Bassett, Deloris Richards, Dorothy Brown, Francis Brooks and Barbara Smith, all of Charles City, VA; two sisters-in-law, Helen Charity and Doris Charity; four grandchildren, Raina Charity, Brysen Charity, Braylon Charity and Tyler Cooke; devoted friends, Marie Bell, Sharon Scott, Velvet Cowles, all of Williamsburg, VA and Curtis Adkins of Charles City; a devoted niece who was perceived by many as her sister Carol Brown, better known as "Sue"; and a host of family members and friends who loved her dearly.

“ Words can express how much pain I have endured this pass week. Im truly going to miss you, I wish that god didn't call him an angel home so soon! My mother loved you dearly I always said you should have been the big sister. I will always remember you asking me to babysit my younger cousins Shawn and Khalid which i never mind doing for such a special aunt like you! My deepest sympathy goes out to your grandkids I know they are going to miss you. Farewell until we meet again..."momma marion" love Rhonda❤️

*It's hard to imagine W&M without Marion - she's been an everyday part of my W&M experience since I was a student here in the early 1990's.
She always had a way of bringing a ray of sunshine into my day and she'll never be forgotten. My thoughts and prayers go out to her family.
Thank you, Marion, I'm grateful to have been just one of the many,
many lives that you brought sunshine to over the years.*
