

Marion E. Barrett

April 4, 1924 - January 20, 2002

Marion Elizabeth Barrett was born on April 4, 1924 to the late William and Grace Bassil in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life quietly at 2:45am at Bon Secours Hospital on Sunday, January 20, 2002. Marion received her education at Benjamin Banneker #113 and Dunbar High School. She accepted Christ early in life. She attended New Rising Sun Baptist Church. She loved the old hymns. Marion married the late Chester M. Barrett, from this union sixteen children were born. Three sons, Donald, Levi and Avon and one daughter, Bernice, preceded her in death. Marion resided at the Noble House, 2327 North Charles Street. She always looked forward to her children's grandchildren's and great-grandchildren's visits. They would share special holidays with her. She loves plants and believed in getting her flowers while she could smell them. Her two oldest daughters, Helen and Marguerite would come and take her to their homes so she could spend holidays with the family. Helen would always bring her delicious treats and her favorite soda, "Coke." Marian and Amelia would bring her favorite fruits, watermelon and oranges. Marguerite is an employee of Noble House. On her 11-7 shift, she would take her breaks and sit quietly with her mother and share conversations. Marion enjoyed life at Noble House. She loved to play trivial questions and other activities that were provided. Marion was a quiet-spirited person who was loved by all who knew her. She leaves to cherish her memory: her devoted daughters, Helen, Marguerite, Marion, Ernestine, Amelia, Evon, Brendalee and Lisa, four sons, Chester Jr., Bernard, Larry and Maurice; one devoted son-in-law, Milton Baines; one sister, Margaret Bassil; twenty-nine grandchildren, twenty-five great-grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great –nephews, cousins and friends. MOTHER Mother, we all loved you, We shared your love, your sorrow Always forward to seeing you tomorrow; Only the good Lord knew what was best, To take you home to eternal rest. Lovingly submitted, The Children
