

Marion E. Taylor

December 13, 1937 - June 6, 2005

Marion E. Taylor, daughter of the late Tony Smith and Pauline Williams, was born on December 13, 1937 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on June 6, 2005 after a lengthy illness. She received her education at Dunbar High School in Baltimore. She worked in nursing for a number of years. Her most recent employment was at Harbor Hospital where she made plenty of friends. She was a Deaconess at Community Baptist Church in Cherry Hill. She is survived by: one son, Johnnie A. Taylor Sr.; two brothers, Fred Williams and Simm Williams; three sisters, Simsie Jackson, Emma Levy and Jean Williams; three grandchildren, Johnnie A. Taylor Jr., Chenita Ford and Tyrell Taylor; three great-grandchildren, Na'Kaziya, Deaira and Shakayla; and a host of other relatives and friends. Marion was a strong and independent woman. She was the matriarch of the family. We love her and she will be deeply missed.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
