

Marion Elizabeth Jones

March 4, 1931 - January 10, 2003

Marion Elizabeth Wilson-Jones, daughter of the late Rev. Samuel Wilson and Bessie Singletary-Wilson, was born on March 4, 1931. After a lengthy illness, she departed this life on January 10, 2003 to a far and better place. Affectionately known as “Mama” to her family and close friends, she received her early education in the Baltimore City Public Schools. Upon completion of her education, she gained employment with the Baltimore City Public School System. She remained a dedicated employee for twenty-five years. On August 6, 1950, Marion united as one with the late Reginald Jerome Jones Sr. From this union eight children were born Tyrone, Carolyn, Shirley, Catherine, Deborah, Reginald Jr., Denise and Ursula (deceased). Marion was a devoted mother, grandmother and great-grandmother. Her spirit filled the air wherever she went. She was always a true friend and loving soul. She leaves to mourn: five daughters, Carolyn H. Jones-Garland, Shirley A. Jones-Ludd, Catherine R. Jones Shelton, Debra L. Jones-Pitts, Denise R. Jones; two sons, Horace “Tyrone” Bass and Reginald J. Jones Jr.; one son-in-law, Edward Garland; one brother, Charles Loney Sr.; four sisters-in-law, Patricia Loney, Evelyn Hazzard, Wilhelmina Gray, Esther Jones; fourteen grandchildren, thirteen great-grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends.
