

Marion Geneva Ferguson

September 24, 1935 - July 15, 2008

Marion Geneva Ferguson, daughter of the late Rev. Dave and Louise Cromer was born September 24, 1935, in Laurnes County, South Carolina. She accepted Christ at an early age under her father's pastorate at Little River Zion. Marion met and fell in love with the late Harrison Ferguson and married on August 31, 1953. From this union there came four sons. She was educated in the South Carolina school district at Bell Street School. In 1954, Marion and Harrison migrated to Baltimore, MD. She was employed at Shapiro and White House Textile Mills for fifteen years, as a sorter. During her time of employment she encouraged her children to seek employment there to gain independence. Marion was affectionately known throughout the neighborhood as, "Mumma". In her spare time she enjoyed cooking, fishing, and providing child care for family, friends, and neighbors. She leaves to mourn; four sons; Rannie Cromer, Harrison "Bo", Griffin "Joe", and Thomas "Tony" Ferguson, Sr., three daughters-in-law; Delores Cromer, Violetta and Ruth Ferguson; two step daughters; Lois and Jean Jones; three brothers; Paul and Silas Cromer of Clinton, SC and Samuel Cromer of Piscataway, NJ, six grandchildren; Walter "Butch" Cromer, Jr., Jacqueline "Toot" Haynes, Keisha Pierson, Donta' Walker, Thomas "Tony", and Terah Ferguson, eleven great grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends. She was preceded in death by step son; Harrison "Pap" Ferguson and grandson; Terrence Anderson.

“ I am so sorry to hear of the loss of Mrs Marion. May you find much comfort and strength from the bible, because it is the word of God, and it tells us of his wonderful promises to end all sickness and death, and ressurect the dead back to life. Please read Isaiah 25:8, John 5:28,29, Psalm 68:20, and Rev 21:3-5, because they are very comforting, and will tell you of God's wonderful promise to end death forever. May you find the strength to carry on, and always look to Jehovah God and his son Jesus for comfort whenever you are feeling sad.##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4 ) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
