

Marion Oliver Jackson

November 17, 1955 - June 4, 2009

MARION O. JACKSON, son of Doris Pringle and the Robert Harris, was born on November 17, 1955 in Havre De Grace, Maryland. He departed this life on June 4, 2009 at Union Memorial Hospital. He received his education at Lake Clifton High School in Baltimore, Maryland and graduated in June 1974. At the age of nineteen, he became employed by the Proctor and Gamble Co. and remained until his illness. As a child, he attended the Union Chapel Methodist Church-Herford Charge in Monkton, Maryland. He was a devoted and beloved son to his mother. There was nothing too good for her. Marion was known to the family as "Buckos." He loved to write and always asked three questions- Where do you work. What is your address. What is your telephone number. He was loved by his family and was a true friend to many. He leaves to cherish his memory: his beloved mother, Doris Pringle; one brother, Richard Jackson (brother William Pringle Jr. preceded him in death); four sisters, Roberta Mosby, Margaret Jackson, Mary Louise Whitterspoon and Gladys Pringle (sister Gail Pringle preceded him in death); two brothers-in-law, Gayeford Mosby and Jethro Whitterspoon; sister-in-law, Molly Jackson; uncle, Charles Jackson; a host of nephews, nieces, cousins and family friends.

“ May I send my condolences to you all in your recent circle of life broken. It hurts and pain our hearts to loss some one so dear. Our heavenly father is there for you all with tender loving care, 1 Peter 5:7, in all the tribulation in these last days. We can look to the future for better and wonderful things to come, Ps. 145:16. May all the many memories shared with Marion keep sustaining you all on the journey of life. ##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##

“ Death is something that we will never get use to because God's Word refers to it as 'the last enemy.' May you find comfort in knowing that very soon our loving Heavenly Father Jehovah promises us that He will by means of his son Jesus, bring our 'enemy' to nothing. (1Corinthians 15:26) What a wonderful day that will be! ##imported-begin##Kevin Jackson##imported-end##
