

Marion R. Dickerson

March 25, 1934 - March 5, 2005

Marion Rebecca Saunders was born in Richmond, Virginia on March 24, 1934 to Catherine and Junius Saunders. She departed this life suddenly on March 5, 2005. Marion attended Virginia Randolph and Maggie L. Walker High school. She was baptized at St. John's Baptist church at an early age. She went on to marry the late Westley H. Dickerson Sr. and this union produced seven beautiful children. Because of her loving and sweet nature, she was affectionately known to many as "Puddin". Her grandchildren and most of the younger generations adored her as "Nana". Marion was employed by the late Dr. Louis and Mrs. Eloise Williams for over 35 years. She was a faithful fan of the Blue Sox Baseball Team of Washington Park. She was the peaceful link between family and friends. Marion R. Dickerson was preceded in death by her husband, Westley H. Dickerson, Sr. She left to cherish her memories five daughters, Peggy Powers-Richardson, Delores Dickerson, Theresa Mosby, Deborah Dickerson and Sharon Houston; and two sons, Wesley H. Dickerson Jr. and George Dickerson; one daughter-in-law, Julia Dickerson; seventeen grandchildren and twenty-four great-grandchildren; six sisters-in-law; and host of nieces, nephews, great nieces and nephews and many other devoted family, friends and loved ones.

“ To The Family: I am sorry for your loss. Please accept my condolences. But, the Bible does give us encouragement. John 5:28,29 speaks about a time when our dead loved ones will be resurrected to this earth again and Isaiah 33:24 speaks about a time when no one will ever be sick again! May Jehovah God, and his word the Bible, comfort you.##imported-begin##Kendra A.##imported-end##

“ I am sorry to hear of the passing of your loved one. The scriptures give us great comfort in these trying times. One such scripture is found at Isaiah 66:13 where it says “Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting YOU people; Please draw this comfort from the God of all comfort (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
