

Marion Slocum

November 9, 1946 - July 1, 2025

MARION ELLEN SLOCUM, daughter of the late Roland E. Slocum and Martha (Patterson) Slocum, was born on November 9, 1946, in Baltimore, Maryland.

Marion was one of six children and was predeceased by four brothers - Roosevelt Johnson, Ernest Roland, George Edward and Albert (Chubby); and one sister, Evangeline (Ann) Stewart and a longtime companion Daniel E. (Smithy) Smith Sr.

Marion graduated from Carver Vocational-Technical High School where she majored in cosmetology. She worked at various nursing homes in Baltimore City and Randallstown. Marion later worked for the Veterans Administration Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland from which she retired in 2007.

Marion loved LIFE, she enjoyed her family (particularly her son Daniel Jr.), co-workers and friends. She was a GREAT cook, and family and friends enjoyed her culinary treats and delights. Marion also had a great sense of humor.

Marion leaves to cherish her memory: her son, Daniel E. Smith Jr.; sister, Lolita Maria Slocum; two sisters-in-law, Roslyn Johnson of Baltimore and Diane Slocum of New Mexico; a host of nieces, great nieces, nephews, great-nephews and cousins from Baltimore City, Baltimore County (Owings Mills, Towson and Reisterstown), Anne Arundel and Harford counties, Virginia, Pennsylvania, North Carolina and New York
